

WHAT IS PROFESSIONALISM?

Professionalism is the conduct, aims, or qualities that characterize or mark a profession or a professional person; the skill, good judgment, and polite behavior that is expected from a person who is trained to do a job well.

Professionalism consists of certain attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors sometimes known collectively as “virtue” or “good character.” Attitudes and behaviors have two things in common. First, both are produced by our beliefs. Second, we have the power to choose our attitudes and behaviors.

WHO WE ARE

The Chief Justice’s Commission on Professionalism (CJCP) is composed of members appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina representing its four constituencies: appellate and trial judges, law faculty, practicing lawyers and the public. It is chaired by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina or his/her designee. The CJCP is administered by a full-time executive director and an administrative officer.

CJCP’s mission is to foster professionalism within the North Carolina legal community through creation, organization, and participation in a wide variety of activities and programs designed to fulfill its charge: to enhance professionalism among North Carolina lawyers, judges, and law students. It accomplishes this by supporting and engaging in activities throughout North Carolina and the United States that promote appropriate professional behavior required by all North Carolina lawyers in the Rules of Professional Conduct, respect for others, and a commitment to the values underpinning the rule of law and administration of justice.
